Wanted!

Research participants with Parkinson's Disease

We would like to speak to 10-15 people with Parkinson's disease from different ethnic backgrounds to explore the social, cultural and environmental influences on their attitudes to exercise.

As a participant in this study, you would have a one-to-one interview (up to 1 hour, face to face, phone or online).

Interpreters will be available if English is not your first language.

In appreciation of your time, you will receive £20 and reimbursement of travel expenses.

This study has been reviewed by, and received ethics clearance through, the School of Health and Psychological Sciences, City, University of London.

If you would like to complain about any aspect of the study, please contact the Secretary to the Senate Research Ethics Committee on 020 7040 3040 or via email: Anna.Ramberg.1@city.ac.uk
